Attorney for Plaintiff iCall, Inc.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

For its first amended complaint against defendants Tribair, Inc. (“Tribair”) and Eric Reiher (“Reiher”), jointly referred to sometimes herein as “Defendants,” plaintiff iCall, Inc. (“Plaintiff”), alleges:

JURISDICTION

1. This is an action for infringement of a federally registered trademark pursuant to 15 USC §1114, 15 USC §1125(a), 15 USC §1125(c), 15 USC §1125(d) and unfair competition under California Business & Professions Code § 17200, et. seq., and violations of the California trademark law, California Business & Professions Code §§ 14245, 14320, and 14330.
2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to: 28 USC §§ 1331 and 1338(a) and (b), and 15 USC §1121, as an action for violations of the Lanham Act, 15 USC §§ 1051, et seq.,

1 28 USC § 1332(a)(1), and has pendent, supplemental and ancillary jurisdiction pursuant to 28
2 U.S.C. § 1367 of state law claims arising from a common nucleus of operative fact under the
3 California State Unfair Competition, Trademark Infringement, Trademark Dilution, and Trade
4 Name Infringement Laws contained herein under the provisions of 28 USC §1338(b) in that said
5 claims are joined with a substantial and related claim under the trademark laws of the United 6 States, 15 USC §§ 1051, et seq. Further, this Court has jurisdiction under the United States
7 Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 USC §§2201 and 2202.

8 3. Venue is proper under 28 USC § 1391(d), because Defendants are aliens, to wit, Tribair is a
9 corporation incorporated in Canada, and Reiher is a natural person and a resident of Canada;
10 venue is further proper under 28 USC § 1391(b)(2) because the Defendants have caused injury to 11 Plaintiff and loss of customers in this District by generating consumer confusion and the 12 likelihood of confusion regarding Plaintiff's "iCall" Federally-registered trademark by marketing
13 goods and services in the App Store operated by Apple, Inc. within the Northern District of 14 California at 1 Infinite Loop, Cupertino, California 95014.

15 INTRADISTRICT ASSIGNMENT

16 4. Pursuant to L.R. 3-2(c), intradistrict assignment of this Intellectual Property Action is made 17 on a District-wide basis.

18 PARTIES

19 5. Plaintiff is a corporation incorporated in the State of Delaware, registered to do business in 20 the State of California pursuant to Cal. Corp. Code § 2105 as Entity No. C3281083 in the State
21 of California, doing business in the State of California. Plaintiff is additionally the assignee of 22 the trade name rights of its predecessor in interest, the first corporation to register as a California
23 corporation under the iCall, Inc. trade name.

1 6. Defendant Tribair is a Canadian company officed at 1343 Rue des Pluviers, Longueil,
2 Quebec, Canada J4G 2N4.

3 7. Defendant Reiher is the Chief Executive Officer of Tribair, a natural person officed at 1343
4 Rue des Pluviers, Longueil, Quebec, Canada J4G 2N4.

5 8. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants, because Defendants have caused a
6 likelihood of confusion with Plaintiff's registered trademark, have tarnished and diluted
7 Plaintiff's famous mark, and have caused Plaintiff to lose a substantial number of customers in 8 the State of California and in this judicial District. Defendants have used the means and 9 instrumentalities of interstate commerce, including but not limited to the Internet, interstate 10 telephone communications, the mails, and other interstate communications within this judicial 11 District, and therefore they, and each of them, have purposely availed themselves of the laws of 12 the State of California operative within this judicial District.

13 9. The full extent of the facts linking the fictitiously named defendants Does 1 through 5 with 14 the matters alleged herein, and/or the true names or capacities, whether individual, corporate,
15 partnership, associate, member or otherwise of said fictitiously named defendants, are unknown
16 to Plaintiff, who therefore sues said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed
17 and believes and thereon alleges that each of the defendants designated herein as Doe 1 through 18 5 negligently, wantonly, recklessly, tortiously and unlawfully committed the acts that 19 proximately caused injury and damages to Plaintiff as alleged herein. Plaintiff will hereafter
20 seek leave of court to amend this complaint to allege said defendants' true names and capacities
21 when the same have been ascertained.

22 10. Plaintiff alleges, on information and belief, that each defendant named herein including 23 those named as Does, is and at all relevant times mentioned was, the agent, servant,
24

1 co-conspirator, advertiser, and/or employee of each of the other Defendants and, in doing the 2 things alleged herein, was acting in the course and scope and with the knowledge of each of the 3 other named Defendants. Plaintiff further alleges on information and belief that each Defendant
 4 named herein aided and abetted the others by authorizing and/or ratifying the acts herein alleged.

6 PLAINTIFF'S FEDERAL AND CALIFORNIA RIGHTS

7 11. Complainant has the following exclusive rights respecting the iCall mark and name:

- 8 a. To offer goods and services in interstate and international 9 commerce using the iCall® mark in International Class 38 for 10 telephone communication services, including aural and optical
   11 information transmission. (Exhibit 1, USPTO Registration No.
 12 2,194,066, issued 10/6/1998, first use in commerce 4/1/1996.)<sup>1</sup>
- 13 b. To use ICALL.COM, and all second-level confusingly-
   14 similar domain names, on the Internet based on first registration of 15 the ICALL.COM domain and use in commerce of the iCall® mark.
   16 (Exhibit 2, page 1.)<sup>2</sup>
- 17 c. To offer “Telecommunications Services, Carrier Services, 18 and Mobile Platforms” in the State of California using iCall
   19 Registered Service Mark 66916. (Exhibit 3.)<sup>3</sup>
- 20 d. To use iCall as a California trade name. (Exhibit 4.)<sup>4</sup>

21 iCall's Sixteen Years of Use In Interstate Commerce

22 12. With first use in commerce commencing March 1, 1996, iCall and its predecessors in 23 interest have used the iCall® mark in commerce for over sixteen (16) years to identify its 24 services and distinguish them from those made and sold by others, prominently displaying the

27 <sup>2</sup> The Anti-Cybersquatting Consumer Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(d).

28 <sup>3</sup> Cal. Business & Profession Code §14247.

1 iCall® mark and iCall, Inc. trade name on the products themselves, by hosting advertisements,
2 displays, and other materials associated therewith at the iCall.Com website, and in the Apple
3 App Store. The App Store page devoted to the iCall VoIP App is attached as Exhibit 5. Plaintiff
4 has invested approximately $4,000,000 in the development and marketing of the iCall®
5 software.

7 13. Plaintiff's primary product and service is the provision of free and low-cost long-distance
8 telephone communication using a Voice-over Internet protocol ("VoIP") calling platform that 9 operates on desktop computers and mobile devices like the Apple iPhone and the iPod Touch.
10 iCall® VoIP includes proprietary functions driven by unique patented software.
11

12 Plaintiff's Mark Is Famous Within The Internet VoIP Market

13 14. iCall® VoIP has become popular because of its efficacy and user-friendliness. To use
14 VoIP, a consumer must have either a computer with an Internet connection, or a handheld device
15 that has Internet access through a wireless network; therefore, virtually the entire market for 16 VoIP is contained within the Internet, and is exclusively comprised of Internet users. iCall®
17 VoIP provides very substantial cost-savings to Internet users, who can make voice calls around
18 the world using their unlimited Internet access accounts, for which they usually pay a fixed 19 monthly fee, instead of incurring costly per-minute charges and over-plan-limit fees using their 20 wireless accounts. iCall® VoIP thus provides measureable cost-savings to both businesses and 21 individuals, increasing consumer access to voice communications at decreased expense, and 22 fulfilling the promise of the Internet to facilitate worldwide connectivity. Plaintiff has been a 23 leader in VoIP for both individuals and companies, and offers wholesale VoIP solutions for 24 business through iCall® Carrier Services.
25
26
27

1 15. iCall® VoIP service is particularly valuable for persons and businesses making long
2 distance and international telephone calls over cellular “smartphones” that incur high toll-
3 charges through the established system of wireless telephone service providers, but can avoid 4 these unnecessary costs by using their Internet access to take advantage of iCall® VoIP.

6 16. Plaintiff has used the iCall.Com domain and the iCall® mark exclusively for development, 7 distribution and marketing of telephone and VoIP services, wherefore Plaintiff’s iCall® mark has 8 acquired public acceptance and an associated secondary meaning in the mind of the consuming
9 public that connects the iCall® mark with Plaintiff’s VoIP service, thereby creating goodwill that 10 inures to Plaintiff’s benefit.
11

12 17. The iCall® VoIP software has been downloaded over fifteen-million (15,000,000) times, 13 and the iCall® VoIP private network has grown to where it now carries over 1 billion minutes of 14 voice traffic per month to destinations around the globe. The www.iCall.Com website enjoys 15 consistently high traffic rankings on third-party Internet traffic monitors such as Alexa.com, and 16 the largest volume of Internet visitors arrive at the www.iCall.Com website either by typing in 17 the iCall.Com domain name directly into their Internet browser address bar, or by typing the 18 “icall” phrase into a search engine like Google, Yahoo, or Bing. Such consumer identification of 19 the iCall® mark indicates that the iCall® mark, the iCall.Com domain, and the iCall, Inc. trade
20 name have attained a strong secondary meaning in the mind of the VoIP-consuming public.

Plaintiff’s iCall® Mark Is Famous in The Mobile App Market for VoIP

23 18. Plaintiff provides a specialized iCall® App for iPhone and iPod users. Apple, Inc., the sole 24 source of the iPhone, requires all iPhone App providers to utilize specific developer tools and to 25 submit their Apps for approval before they can be offered for sale through the iPhone App Store.
26 In March 2009, Apple, Inc. approved the iCall® iPhone App for distribution through the iPhone
27
28

1 App Store. Because iPhone Apps can also be “played” on the iPod Touch music player, and the 2 iPod Touch has wireless capabilities, the iCall® software allows iPod Touch owners to make
 3 long-distance and international calls whenever they are in a standard Internet wireless access
 4 zone, such as those commonly found in coffee-houses (“wireless hot spots”) thus turning a 5 simple media device into a vehicle for unlimited international phone-calling. iCall® software is 6 completely unique in providing VoIP to users of the iPod Touch. Consumers may download the 7 iCall® App for free, and upgrade to a higher level of service for $9.95 per month.

9 19. Third-party media outlets have lauded the iCall® App, including the influential
 10 ModMyi.com blog, that described the iCall® iPhone App as “the next step in VoIP technology 11 as a whole.”<sup>5</sup> Plaintiff continued to blaze a trail that brought it national press when it became the 12 first iPhone VoIP App to offer free VoIP calls on the AT&T mobile network, which garnered
 13 Plaintiff’s iCall® iPhone App the designation of “App of the Week” on February 2, 2010, in the 14 “Gadgetwise” column in the Personal Tech section of the New York Times Business page.<sup>6</sup> One
 15 week later, on February 10, 2010, the New York Times published a second article that 16 highlighted Plaintiff’s iCall® iPhone App, entitled “Better Calling For Less, By Skipping the 17 Cell Network.”<sup>7</sup>

20 20. Plaintiff’s iCall® mark has attained fame as a uniquely-identifiable VoIP provider among 21 personal and business consumers in the Internet App market for VoIP.

1                   Defendant Tribair Is Using the WiCall Mark In the App Store And Elsewhere

2                   In A Manner Likely to Cause, and Causing, Consumer Confusion, Mistake, and Deception

3                   21. Defendants, without Plaintiff's consent, are using the nearly-identical "WiCall" mark to 4                   market a competing VoIP App in the Apple App Store, where it appears side-by-side with the 5                   iCall VoIP App when a search is made for the text-string "icall" in the App Store search box, as 6                   depicted in Exhibit 6. Defendants have proliferated the infringing "WiCall" mark elsewhere on 7                   the Internet, as depicted in Exhibit 7, partial results for a Google search of "wicall app".

9                   22. Plaintiff discovered Defendant's infringement of the iCall® mark on or about March 16,
10                   2012, and promptly made demand upon Defendant to cease the infringing use.

12                   23. Defendant's have refused to cease use of the infringing "WiCall" mark.

13
14                   24. Defendants offer competing VoIP services within the same market channel as Plaintiff.
15                   Defendant's intention in adopting the "WiCall" mark was to create an inherently confusing mark
16                   to usurp the goodwill and secondary association of the iCall® with Plaintiff's VoIP service, and 17                   in order to attract, confuse, mislead, and deceive the large number of Internet users searching for 18                   "icall" using Google, Yahoo!, Bing, or other search engines.

20                   25. Defendants have used the "WiCall" mark in the United States, on the Internet, and in other
21                   channels of communication that reach all fifty (50) states within the United States.

22
23                   26. Defendants' usurpation of plaintiff's iCall® mark by incorporating it bodily into the 24                   "WiCall" mark is entirely without permission or authority of Plaintiff.

25
26                   27. Defendants' "WiCall" mark is confusingly similar to plaintiff's federally registered iCall®
27                   mark in sight, sound, and meaning.

1 28. Defendants have maximized the similarity in sight by copying the typeface and typography
2 of “iCall,” i.e., by using a sans-serif font with a lower-case “i” and capital “C,” both when
3 utilizing the iCall® mark singly and in the “WiCall” mark.

5 29. Defendants’ usurpation of the iCall® mark to promote substantially similar VoIP services in 6 Internet commerce leads to the likelihood of confusion.

8 30. Defendants’ use of “WiCall” as a mark wholly incorporating the iCall® mark is likely to 9 cause and has caused confusion with plaintiff’s federally registered and incontestable iCall®
10 mark and trade name because the two marks are (1) similar in sight, sound and meaning, (2) used
11 to promote substantially similar goods and services, (3) are advertised and promoted to the same
12 classes of consumers on the Internet, and (4) are advertised and promoted in the same channels
13 of trade. Such similarities are likely to cause and have caused confusion as to origin, 14 sponsorships, source, or affiliation.

16 31. Defendants’ use of the iCall® mark singly and within the “WiCall” mark has diluted and 17 tarnished the unique character of the iCall® mark in the market for VoIP products and services.
18

19 32. On March 20, 2012, after receiving actual notice from Plaintiff that the “WiCall” mark is 20 infringing, Defendants submitted fraudulent trademark application Serial Number 85574570 to 21 the United States Patent and Trademark Office in International Class 038, falsely averring 22 therein that “to the best of his/her knowledge and belief no other person, firm, corporation, or 23 association has the right to use the mark in commerce, either in the identical form thereof or in 24 such near resemblance thereto as to be likely, when used on or in connection with the 25 goods/services of such other person, to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive...” A 26 true copy of the said fraudulent application is attached hereto as Exhibit 8.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

Infringement of a Registered Trademark in Violation of Section 32 of the Lanham Act, 15 USC § 1114
Against All Defendants

33. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation set forth herein as if set forth in full hereat.

34. As alleged above, Plaintiff owns a federal trademark registration for and is the senior user of the contestable iCall® mark. Plaintiff has successfully protected its exclusive use of the mark against all other businesses in the telephone and telecommunications business that have attempted to utilize the mark. Plaintiff is the sole lawful user of the mark in the telecommunications field including all forms of telephonic audio and video transmission

35. Defendants commenced use of the iCall® mark singly and by incorporating it into the inherently confusing “WiCall” mark in 2012, long after Plaintiff’s first date of use in commerce in 1996.

36. Plaintiff has not consented to Defendants' use of the iCall® mark expressly or by implication.

37. Defendants have constructive notice of the plaintiff's rights in its federally registered and incontestable iCall® mark.

38. Defendants have been on actual notice of Plaintiff's rights as alleged herein since no later than March 16, 2012.

39. Defendants' usurpation of Plaintiff's iCall® mark by incorporating it into the inherently confusing "WiCall" mark in connection with the advertising, distributing, offering for sale and selling of VoIP and long distance calling services in interstate commerce similar or related to those offered by Plaintiff constitutes use in commerce of the iCall® mark in a manner likely to

1 cause, and causing, actual confusion, mistake and deception among consumers. Such use
2 therefore infringes upon Plaintiff's rights in its registered, incontestable iCall® mark.

4 40. Plaintiff has been damaged by Defendants' trademark infringement by reason of the 5 likelihood that customers and potential customers have been confused as to the source or 6 affiliation, sponsorship or approval of Defendants's goods and the relationship of such goods to 7 Plaintiff. Such confusion takes different forms with different consumers, and however such 8 confusion takes effect, it leads to mistaken associations between Plaintiff's products and services
9 and those provided by Defendants, which causes damage and irreparable harm to Plaintiff.
10

11 41. Defendants have profited from the actions of trademark infringement alleged herein.
12

13 42. By reason of defendants' actions alleged herein plaintiff is likely to suffer irreparable injury 14 to its business, goodwill and property. Plaintiff is entitled, pursuant to 15 USC § 1117, to 15 recover from Defendants the damages they have sustained and will sustain as a result of 16 Defendants' wrongful conduct as alleged herein. Plaintiff is further entitled to recover from 17 Defendants' gains, profits and advantages that Defendants have obtained as a result of the 18 wrongful conduct alleged herein. Plaintiff, at present is unable to ascertain the full extent of its 19 damages, or the gains, profits and advantages that Defendants have obtained by reason of their 20 wrongful conduct, the full amount thereof to be proven at trial.
21

22 43. Defendants' acts of infringement have been willful and taken without regard to the 23 established rights of Plaintiff.
24

25 44. Plaintiff is entitled pursuant to USC § 1116, to an injunction restraining defendants, their 26 officers, agents and employees, and all persons acting in concert with them, from engaging in 27 any further acts of infringement in violation of the Lanham Act.
28

1 45. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law. Unless defendants are enjoined from committing
 2 these unlawful acts as set forth above, plaintiff will continue to suffer irreparable harm.

4 46. This is an exceptional case; wherefore Plaintiff is entitled to an award of its reasonable
 5 attorney's fees incurred in the prosecution of this action, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
Use Of A False Designation In Violation Of Section 43(a)
of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)
Against All Defendants

7 47. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegations set forth herein
 8 as if set forth in full hereat.

10 48. The iCall® mark is a distinctive mark, uniquely associated with Plaintiff, that identifies 11 Plaintiff as the sole, true and legitimate source of iCall® VoIP products and services.
 12

13 49. Defendants have caused their VoIP and long-distance products and services similar to, and 14 in the perception of Internet consumers virtually indistinguishable from those of Plaintiff, to 15 enter into interstate commerce in connection with the iCall® mark and the “WiCall” designation.
 16 Defendants’ unconsented and unlawful use of the iCall® mark and the “WiCall” mark to market
 17 their VoIP and long-distance products and services are false designations of origin, that have 18 actually caused confusion and mistake among consumers, have deceived consumers as to the 19 affiliation, connection, or association of Defendants with Plaintiff, or alternatively and 20 conjunctively, have confused, caused mistake among, and deceived consumers as to the 21 affiliation, connection or association of Plaintiff with Defendants. Such false designations have 22 also caused confusion as to the origin, sponsorship, or approval of goods and/or services of 23 Plaintiff, and are likely to cause such confusion, mistake and/or deception among consumers in 24 the future.
 25

26 50. By reason of Defendants' actions alleged herein, Plaintiff is likely to suffer and has suffered 27 irreparable injury to its business, good will and property.
 28

1 51. Defendants have profited from their actions of trademark infringement alleged herein.
2 52. By reason of Defendants' actions alleged herein, Plaintiff is likely to suffer irreparable
3 injury to its business, good will and property. Plaintiff is entitled, pursuant 15 U.S.C. § 1117, to
4 recover from Defendants the damages they have sustained and will sustain as a result of
5 Defendants' wrongful conduct as alleged herein. Plaintiff is further entitled to recover from
6 Defendants the gains, profits and advantages that Defendants have obtained as a result of the 7 wrongful conduct alleged herein. Plaintiff is presently unable to ascertain the full extent of its
8 damages, or the gains, profits and advantages that Defendants have obtained by reason of the 9 wrongful conduct described herein.

10 53. On information and belief, Defendants' acts of infringement have been willful and taken
11 without regard to the established rights of the Plaintiff.

12 54. Plaintiff is entitled pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1116, to an injunction restraining Defendants,
13 their officers, agents and employees, and all persons acting in concert with them, from engaging
14 in any further such acts of infringement in violation of the Lanham Act.

15 55. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law. Unless Defendants are enjoined from committing
16 these unlawful acts as set forth above, Plaintiff will continue to suffer irreparable harm.

17 56. This is an exceptional case; wherefore Plaintiff is entitled to an award of its reasonable
18 attorney's fees incurred in the prosecution of this action, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117.

23 THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF
24 Dilution Of A Famous Mark In Violation Of Section 43
25 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1126(c)
26 Against All Defendants

27 57. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein all allegations set forth herein as if set forth fully 28 hereat.

58. Plaintiff's federally registered incontestable iCall® mark is distinctive and famous as one of the premier names in the VoIP App marketplace.

1 59. Defendants first commenced usurping the iCall® mark and using the “WiCall” mark and 2 trade name in 2012, by which time Plaintiff had used its iCall® mark as a source identifier in the 3 Apple App Store for three (3) years, and attained fame within the VoIP App market. Defendants
4 have used the “WiCall” mark since Plaintiff’s iCall® mark attained fame within the VoIP App
5 market.

7 60. Defendants are usurping the iCall® mark and using the “WiCall” mark to market products
8 and services that, to the Internet consumer, are virtually indistinguishable from those offered by 9 Plaintiff.

11 61. Defendants’ usurpation of the iCall® mark results in their use of a mark nearly-identical in 12 sight, sound, and meaning to Plaintiffs’ iCall® mark, therefore blurring the distinctiveness and 13 consumer recognition of Plaintiffs’ mark as a unique identifier in commerce.

14 62. Defendants’ use of the inherently confusing “WiCall” mark and trade name results in their 15 use of a mark confusingly similar in sight, sound, and meaning to Plaintiffs’ iCall® mark,
16 therefore blurring the distinctiveness and consumer recognition of Plaintiffs’ mark as a unique 17 identifier in commerce.

19 63. Accordingly, by the acts alleged above, Defendants have diluted and tarnished the 20 distinctive qualities of Plaintiffs’ iCall® mark in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c).

22 64. Upon information and belief, Defendants have profited from their actions of trademark 23 infringement alleged herein.

24 65. By reason of Defendants’ actions alleged herein, Plaintiff is likely to suffer irreparable
25 injury to its business, good will and property. Plaintiff is entitled, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117,
26 to recover from Defendants the damages it has sustained and will sustain as a result of 27 Defendants’ wrongful conduct as alleged herein. Plaintiff is further entitled to recover from 28

1 Defendants the gains, profits and advantages that Defendants have obtained as a result of the
 2 wrongful conduct alleged herein. Plaintiff is presently unable to ascertain the full extent of its
 3 damages, or the gains, profits and advantages that Defendants have obtained by reason of the 4 wrongful conduct described herein.

6 66. Defendants' acts of infringement have been willful and taken without regard to the
 7 established rights of Plaintiff.

8 67. Plaintiff is entitled pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1116, to an injunction restraining Defendants,
 9 their officers, agents and employees and all persons acting in concert with them, from engaging
 10 in any further such acts of infringement in violation of the Lanham Act.
 11

12 68. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy of law. Unless Defendants are enjoined from committing 13 those unlawful acts as set forth above, Plaintiff will continue to suffer irreparable harm.
 14

15 69. This is an exceptional case; wherefore Plaintiff is entitled to an award of its reasonable
 16 attorney's fees incurred in the prosecution of this action, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117.
 17

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
Use of A Colorable Imitation or Counterfeit of A Registered Mark
In Violation of Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 14245(a), et seq.,
Against All Defendants

70. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference herein each and every allegation set forth
 20 herein as if set forth fully hereat.
 21

71. Plaintiff's iCall mark is a registered mark within the meaning of Cal. B. & P. Code § 14215
 23 (the "California Registered Mark"), as evidenced by the Certificate of Registration issued by the 24 California Secretary of State attached hereto as Exhibit 3.
 25

72. Defendants had a duty to choose a mark for their VoIP services that could not be considered
 27 a colorable imitation or counterfeit of Plaintiff's California Registered Mark.
 28

1 73. Defendants “WiCall” mark is a colorable imitation of Plaintiff’s California Registered
2 Mark; in the alternative, the “WiCall” mark is a counterfeit of the California Registered Mark.

4 74. Defendants are using the “WiCall” mark in connection with the sale, distribution, offering
5 for sale, and advertising of Defendants’ own VoIP services, in the App Store and to Internet-
6 using consumers in the State of California.

7 75. Defendants’ use of the “WiCall” mark in connection with the distribution, offering for sale,
8 and advertising of Defendants’ own VoIP services in the App Store and on the Internet is likely 9 to cause confusion or mistake in the minds of ordinary consumers, and/or to deceive them as to 10 the source of origin of Defendants’ goods or services within the California market, in violation of 11 Section 14245(a)(1).

13 76. In violation of Section 14245(a)(2), and with the intent to cause confusion, mistake, and/or 14 deception, Defendants applied the “WiCall” mark to digital labels, signs, prints, and 15 advertisements to promote the sale of Defendant’s VoIP services, and distributed them to 16 consumers in the State of California, both in the App Store and over the Internet.,

18 77. Due to the above-alleged conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff is suffering and will continue to 19 suffer irreparable harm, for which Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law; wherefore, pursuant 20 to Section 14245(a)(1), Plaintiff is entitled to an order enjoining Defendants’ manufacture, use,
21 or display of the “WiCall” mark in California commerce, and the destruction of any goods or 22 promotional materials bearing the “WiCall” mark pursuant to Section 14250(a).

24 78. Defendants’ profits from the sale of their VoIP services using the “WiCall” mark are 25 unlawful gains; wherefore, pursuant to Section 14245(a)(1), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of up
26 to three times Defendants’ profits gained by reason of the wrongful manufacture, use, display and/or sale of the “WiCall” mark and goods and services marketed in connection therewith, pursuant to Section 14250(a).
27

79. Plaintiff has been and continues to be damaged by Defendants' above-alleged violations of Plaintiff's rights in the California Service Mark; wherefore, wherefore, pursuant to Sections 14245(a)(1), Plaintiff is entitled to treble damages pursuant to Section 14250(a).

80. Defendants have acted intentionally and despicably with oppression, fraud and malice toward Plaintiff, with the intention of annoying and injuring Plaintiff and damaging Plaintiff's lawful business. Plaintiff, therefore is entitled to an award of punitive damages for the sake of example, and by way of punishing Defendants pursuant to California Civil Code § 3294.

FIFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
Unfair Competition In Violation of
Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200, Et. Seq.
Against All Defendants

81. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference herein each and every allegation set forth herein as if set forth fully hereat

82. Defendants are all "persons" within the meaning of California's Business and Professions Code § 17201.

83. As a result of the continued advertising, promotion, offering for sale, and sales of VoIP and telephone services by plaintiff for over sixteen (16) years under the iCall® mark, said mark has developed a secondary meaning among purchasers in Plaintiff's and Defendants's trade area, and is a distinctive trademark.

84. iCall® has come to indicate to such purchasers that Plaintiff's VoIP and related products originate only with Plaintiff.

85. Defendants' use of the iCall® mark by bodily incorporating it in the "WiCall" mark is likely to cause, and on information and belief, has actually caused consumer confusion, mistake and

1 deception regarding the source of the goods and services offered and sold by Defendants in 2 interstate commerce.

3 86. Defendants' usurpation and use of the iCall® mark by bodily incorporating it in the 4 "WiCall" mark to offer and sell VoIP, long-distance, and related products and services, just as 5 Plaintiff has done for sixteen years prior, constitutes unfair competition and unfair business
6 practices through the infringement of Plaintiffs' preexisting rights in the iCall® mark.

7 87. Defendants have infringed Plaintiffs' iCall® mark as alleged herein with the intent to 8 deceive the public into believing that goods and services advertised by Defendants are made by,
9 approved by, sponsored by, or affiliated with Plaintiff, and/or to oppress Plaintiff; alternatively 10 and conjunctively, Defendants have engaged in such conduct with the intent to deceive the 11 public into believing that goods and services advertised by Plaintiffs are made by, approved by,
12 sponsored by, or affiliated with Defendant, and/or to oppress Plaintiff.

13 88. Plaintiff has been and continues to be damaged by Defendants' acts of unfair competition
14 and unfair business practices.

15 89. Accordingly Defendants' conduct constitutes unfair competition and an unfair business
16 practice under California Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq. as an infringement of 17 Plaintiffs' rights. Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief ordering Defendants to cease such 18 unlawful business practices and unfair competition pursuant to California Business and 19 Profession Code § 17203.

20 90. Pursuant to California Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq., Plaintiff is entitled to 21 an award restoring to Plaintiff any monies or profits that Defendants have wrongfully acquired or 22 caused to be lost as a result of their violations, as will be established by proof at trial.

1 91. Defendants have acted intentionally and despicably with oppression, fraud and malice
2 toward Plaintiff, with the intention of annoying and injuring Plaintiff and damaging Plaintiff's
3 lawful business. Plaintiff, therefore is entitled to an award of punitive damages for the sake of 4 example and by way of punishing Defendants pursuant to California Civil Code § 3294.

6 SIXTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
7 Declaratory Relief Pursuant To
8 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2002
9 Against All Defendants

10 92. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein by reference each and every allegation set forth
11 herein as if set forth fully hereat.

12 93. An actual controversy now exists between Plaintiff and Defendants concerning:

13 (a) Plaintiff's rights to exclusive use of the iCall® trademark, the 14 California Service Mark, and the iCall, Inc. trade name, and 15 to bar the Defendants' from using any marks, designations
16 of origin, trade names, that are confusingly similar to, or 17 colorable imitations of, the said trademark, service mark,
18 and trade name;

19 (b) The invalidity of Defendant's fraudulent trademark application
20 Serial Number 85574570 now pending with the United 21 States Patent and Trademark Office;

22 (d) Plaintiff's rights to obtain an accounting and disgorgement of 23 all monies, accounts receivable, and purchase orders related
24 to the sale of goods and services using the "WiCall" mark;

1 (e) The liability of Defendants for trademark infringement, false
2 designation of origin, trademark dilution, and unfair
3 competition under the Lanham Act;

4 (f) The liability of Defendants for trademark infringement, false
5 designation of origin, trademark dilution, and unfair
6 competition, under California and/or common law;

7 (f) Whether Defendants are barred by equitable doctrines including 8 laches, unclean hands, waiver and estoppel, from asserting
9 any rights to exploit colorable imitations of Plaintiff's
10 mark.

11 94. Plaintiff is unable to use its trademarks effectively without actual and likely confusion in the 12 marketplace until a judicial determination of the foregoing disputed issues is obtained.

13 95. Wherefore, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202, Plaintiff seeks a declaration of the 14 rights and duties of the parties.

15 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

16 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests entry of judgment in its favor and against Defendants
17 as follows:

18 A. A permanent injunction prohibiting Defendants from:

19 1. Using the iCall® mark alone or in combination with other words, symbols or 20 designs including in any manner in connection with telephone service, long distance service, or 21 VoIP products and services;

1       2.     Using the mark “WiCall” as the name of designation of origin of any product or 2 service, alone or in combination with other words, symbols or designs in connection with 3 telephone service, long distance service, or VoIP products and services;

4       3.     Using any representations of fact in connection with its products which are likely 5 to cause confusion, or to cause a mistake or to deceive as to the affiliation, connection or 6 association of Defendants and Plaintiff, or as to the origin, sponsorship or approval of 7 Defendants' products by Plaintiff;

8       4.     Using any colorable imitation or counterfeit of California Registered Service
9 Mark 66916 to label, identify, promote, advertise, sell, or offer any products or services within 10 the State of California;

11       5.     Prosecuting Defendant's fraudulent trademark application Serial Number 12 85574570, now pending with the United States Patent and Trademark Office;

13       6.     Prosecuting any other trademark applications that may have the effect of clouding
14 Plaintiff's exclusive rights to the use of the iCall® mark and California Registered Service Mark 15 66916;

16       B.     An award of actual damages suffered by Plaintiff in such amount as shall be established
17 by proof, trebled pursuant to Cal. Business & Professions Code § 14250(a);

18       C.     An accounting and disgorgement of Defendants' profits from the sale of goods and 19 services made in any manner resulting from the Defendants' use of the “WiCall” mark, under 15
20 U.S.C. § 1117, in such amount as shall be established by proof;

21       D.     An accounting and disgorgement of any monies or profits that Defendants have 22 wrongfully acquired or caused to be lost as a result of their violations of the California Business
23

1 and Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq., 14320, 14330, and 14415, in such amount as shall be
2 established by proof, trebled pursuant to Cal. Business & Professions Code § 14250(a);

4 E. A finding that the infringements by Defendants were willful, and/or that Plaintiff's
5 recovery is inadequate based on Defendants' profits; wherefore treble damages are warranted
6 pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a);

7 F. A finding that this is an exceptional case, and that an award to Plaintiff of its full costs
8 and reasonable attorney's fees is therefore warranted pursuant to 15 U.S.C § 1117;

9 G. An order pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1116(a), requiring Defendants to file with the Court and 10 serve on Plaintiff within thirty (30) days after service of an injunction order as requested herein,
11 a report in writing under oath setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have 12 complied with the Court's Order;

13 H. Punitive damages pursuant to California Civil Code § 3294;

14 I. Pre-judgment interest, costs, expenses and reasonable attorney's fees for this suit;

15 J. Such other and further relief that this Court may deem just and proper.
